

ENHANCED SAFETY PLANNING FOR IMMIGRANT SURVIVORS OF DOMESTIC AND SEXUAL VIOLENCE

This document, created by the End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin – Wisconsin Coalition Against Domestic Violence – Legal Department, does not constitute legal advice.

Casa de Esperanza and the National Latin@ Network

Casa de Esperanza is a national resource center for organizations working with Latin American (Latin@) communities. Their mission is to help end domestic violence, sexual assault, and trafficking of all Latin Americans. In 2017, they created a two-part video presentation on emergency safety planning for immigrant survivors of domestic and sexual violence. The presentation was hosted by the National Latin@ Network, a project of Casa de Esperanza that serves as a national institute on domestic violence against Latin Americans. Casa de Esperanza's website is available here, and their YouTube channel is here. The National Latin@ Network's website can be found here.

Presentation Summary and Links

The presentation focuses on making survivors aware of their rights, identifying immigration remedies, preparing enhanced safety plans, and giving immigrant survivors greater access to meaningful services. The presentation also talks about recent provisions, laws, and enforcement measures that may affect immigrant survivors.

Part one, available here, has sections on immigration remedies, VAWA confidentiality protections, and services for immigrant survivors.

Part two, which can be found here, has sections on general advocacy tips, Know Your Rights resources for immigrants, enhanced safety planning, and Language Access rights and resources.
