

HEALTHCARE MARKETPLACE RESOURCES

This document, created by the End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin- Wisconsin Coalition Against Domestic Violence Legal Department does not constitute legal advice.

Healthcare Marketplace Appeal Forms

If you disagree with a decision that the Healthcare Marketplace has made regarding your eligibility for a marketplace plan, eligibility for savings, eligibility for programs, or other determinations, you may appeal that decision by visiting the Healthcare Marketplace's appeal section.

To view the Healthcare Marketplace's appeal section in Spanish, click here.

Healthcare Marketplace Services Covered

For information about the services which Healthcare Marketplace plans cover, click here

This information is also available in Spanish.

Healthcare Marketplace Information for Immigrants

To learn about eligibility requirements and services available for immigrants, visit the Healthcare Marketplace's "Immigrants" section.

This information is also available in Spanish.

Healthcare Marketplace Special Enrollment Period

Normally, individuals may only apply for Healthcare Marketplace insurance during the yearly enrollment period; however, if there are special circumstances, such as losing health coverage, moving, getting married, having a baby, or adopting a child, you may be eligible for a special enrollment period.

For more information about the special enrollment period, click here.

This information is also available in Spanish.

The Affordable Care Act (ACA) and Women's Health

The Family Violence Prevention and Services Program (FVPSA) has published a guide which details how the ACA affects coverage and treatment for women's health issues, including maternal health, sexual health, and intimate partner violence. This guide also addresses additional instances where coverage is expanded and ways in which the ACA affects women's health care. To access this guide, click here.

The Affordable Care Act (ACA) and Domestic Abuse Survivors and Advocates

The Family Violence Prevention and Services Program (FVPSA) has published a guide on frequently asked questions related to how the ACA affects the needs of domestic abuse survivors. To access this guide, click here.