

WISCONSIN CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS: CHAPTER 950

This document, created by the End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin — Wisconsin Coalition Against Domestic Violence — Legal Department, does not constitute legal advice.

Crime Victims' Bill of Rights

Chapter 950 of the Wisconsin State Statutes contains information regarding the rights of victims and witnesses to a crime. Specifically, the Crime Victims' Bill of Rights can be found here.

Office of Crime Victim Services

The Wisconsin Office of Crime Victim Services (OCVS) houses many resources and programs for crime victims, family and friends, and professionals in the victim service field. To learn more about OCVS and its services, click here.

Crime Victims' Rights Board

The Crime Victims' Rights Board at the Office of Crime Victim Services serves to review and investigate complaints made by crime victims regarding their rights as victims of crime. To learn more about the Crime Victims' Rights Board, click here.

Wisconsin 2013 Act 323

Wisconsin 2013 Act 323 created provisions to assure that victims of domestic violence receive specific information from law enforcement. Act 323 also requires law enforcement to collect data on domestic abuse and report it to the District Attorney's office. For more information on Act 323, click here.